

SCENIC ROAD HUNTERS

Travel by car - find the best scenery

Scenic Road Hunters is a travel blog, written by two content creators who think the best way to travel and see the world is by driving.

Authors:
Miika Isotalo
Marko Uskelin

While driving, you can choose what road to follow or if your vehicle can do it, go off-road.

You can also decide when to stop and when to keep going.

Cars have been the key to freedom since they were invented.

Get in and go see the world!

We are interested in collaborations

We can offer you following:

- Photography
- Video production
- Articles in blog or other media
- Social Media Takeovers

If we publish something in our blog, it will be announced in all our own social media channels.
